If you are an artist and a teacher, we encourage you to join the team Artists tangled in the NET and to take part in the exhibition entitled dúas illas (in English, “two islands”) with a work related to the islands Arousa and Chrysí, showing aspects such as nature, geography, history, culture, sustainable tourism, social justice, etc. of these islands.

Send us a photograph (or photograph of your drawing, painting or mural, sculpture or other artistic object) with sufficient resolution to be printed in color in A3 format, in vertical orientation, to the address edlg@iessanclemente.net until April the 24th, 2016.

Inscribe your work in this web form, where you must include an explanation, reflection, poem, etc. which will accompany your image. You can also send a link to a short video related to your work.

Do not forget to sign your picture in a discreet but visible place.

All submissions will be printed and exhibited to celebrate the Week of Arts Education in May 2016 in the cities of Santiago de Compostela, (Galicia, Spain), Island of Arousa (Galicia, Spain) and Ierapetra (Crete, Greece). Artists will receive a certificate of participation and a catalog of the exhibition with ISBN, in Galician and Greek.

You can get inspired in this link and watch more information about the related eTwinning project .
